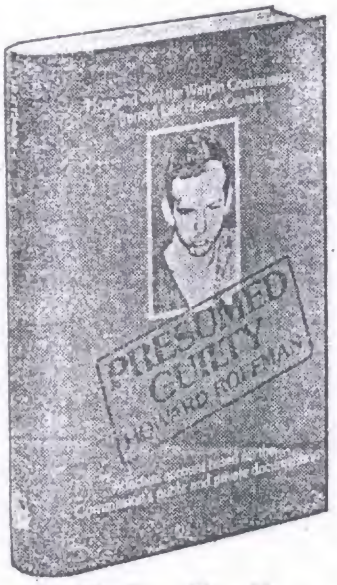
Who Framed Lee Harvey Oswald?



PRESUMED GUILTY

by Howard Roffman

After over eight years of careful research, including examination of the once-secret memos of the Warren Commission, author Howard Roffman has written a book that goes beyond Mark Lane's "Rush to Judgment"—he accuses the Warren Commission of framing Lee Harvey Oswald, that John Kennedy's assassin still walks the earth . . . a free man! Wrote the Saturday Evening Post: "Meticulously written and documented . . . with valuable new insights, especially ballistics and medical areas." Read it . . . sure to become one of 1976's most controversial bestsellers!
